Feeling OK? Meaghan Walsh grimaces at the thought of having to jump the fence behind her.

Look what we found! The puppy, surrounded by Erin Davidson, Lindsay Parks, and Nicole Zoto, shows off its charming personality.

Taking off! Lea Pinto, Stacey Greenway, Shannon Grundy, and Stacie Corbin get friendly at the Science Museum.

So you're sitting at home, your teeth are soaking in a glass next to your elbow, your Depends are about ready to be changed, and your cane is resting gently on the leg of those pretty plaid polyester pants you've got on, and you're thinking, "I wish I could remember back to my high school days. I was so young and spritely then...Ahh that was the life..." You have conveniently forgotten the fear that filled your heart as a seventh grader, the agony of not having that person of choice fall for you in eighth grade, the way the cliques changed freshman year, the utter confusion of sophomore year, the mind-numbing stresses of junior year, and the bittersweet emotions of senior year. Now, you look back on all of these years with fond memories, thinking of the dances, the games, the laughter, the friends...Where is that book, anyways? You rummage around, sifting through coupons and hearing aid brochures...Aha! You spot a shiny, dark and colorful cover and pull it through the chaos of your old age. Here is the year of 1996/1997...This is it.

Just Kickin' It

Student Life

From 7:28 until 1:55 each day we endure as pupils within the confines of the school walls. In pursuit of academic excellence, much of our school day is spent laboring through the arts and sciences. For some this is how Littleton High School will be remembered: a place to be taught and to learn until the closing bell marks the end of simply another day.

Fortunately, at Littleton High this epitomizes very few. In fact, for the vast majority, 1:55 marks the dawning a new and brighter, more exciting day. Many would argue that after the closing bell and outside the classroom walls are where the true "student life" of Littleton High begins. Be it as a member of the school play, a participant of Culture Week, a cheering fan at the game, or "just kickin' it" with your friends at a dance, all contribute to the "student life." It's at these times we as students shine most; the time and chance to show we really are a student body bound together by more than the school walls.

The court is crowned! Ladies in waiting, Magen Portanova, Erin Estep, Melissa Hebert, and Melissa Benjamin support their queen, Sarah Badger. Meanwhile, Steve Kanniard, Matt DiCarlo, Adam Terella, and Christian Dixon stand by the man of the hour, Jason Miller.

"Get Down on H!" Seniors Chad Nixon and Sarah McGrath show off their smokin' grooves. Even though the dance music did not play for long, all took full advantage of whatever fun was left to be had.

Royalty Poses. Queen Sarah Badger and King Jason Miller take time out to flash those pearly whites for the camera. Both the girls and boys walked the runway modeling their stunning looks while the waiters and waitresses decided on a court.

"One of these things is not like the other, one of these things is kinda the same..." Senior Marie Hronik and junior Louis Soracco take a break, oblivious to junior Jeff Roy's crazy dancing skills. The Prom allowed everyone to show off their new moves, such as the "Macarena" and old favorites like the "Electric Slide".

"He's all mine!" Elizabeth Wenz grabs hold of Jon Nader during dinner. Most couples enjoyed the evening until the clock chimed 11 o'clock, and the DJ's turned the lights and music off.

"Dave, do you say cheese? I say cheese!"

—Sarah-Beth Zoto

PROM 1996

The Junior Class of Littleton Junior - Senior High School
requests the pleasure of your company at the Junior Prom
on Friday, May tenth Nineteen hundred ninety-six at seven o'clock in the evening
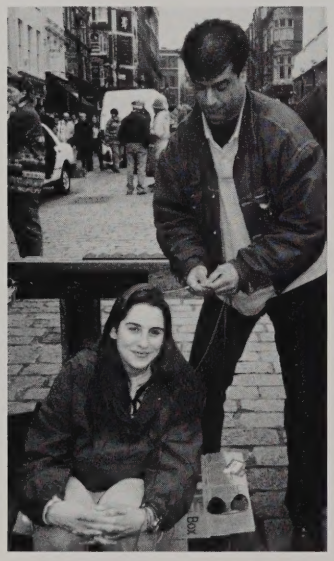
The Castleton in Windham, NH

The menu of the night included Chicken Kiev and steak, manicotti, potatoes and vegetables, ending with chocolate mousse and dipped strawberries. The Junior Class livened up the pink and gray room and made it a night to remember.

You're feeding us what? After a week of sleepless nights on trains and stressful days with Mike the Tour Guide, Mrs. Coburn, Maura Goddard and Mrs. Holt relax...sort of...on the plane home. They all reached their houses in one piece, though the same could not be said for the luggage.

Coke is it! Sarah Badger, Erin Estep, Sarah-Beth Zoto, Sibylle Haupert and Katie Feeney enjoy a refreshing bottle of soda with their less than sumptuous meal. Luckily, the cake tasted much better than the main meal of rooster.

Is he done yet? Sarah Badger patiently waits while her hair is wrapped by an overly-kind English "gentleman". A while later, after paying quite a sum, she returned to the group



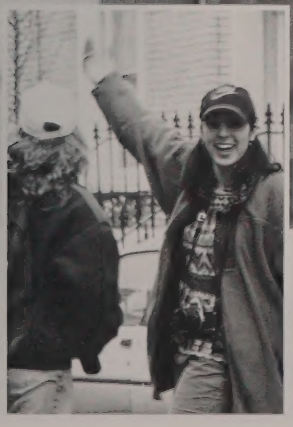
Onward! Sarah-Beth Zoto, Erin Estep, Sibylle Haupert, Sarah Calhoun, Jill Stewart and Emily VanBaalen relax on the ferry bound for the shores of France. Although, Mike had a few troubles actually getting them to the White Cliffs, they did make it across the Channel and spent the rest of the day admiring the French countryside from the bus window.

Maybe he'll leave us alone...The strange man in the background, who had moments before jumped into the picture with Sarah Calhoun and Jill Stewart, looks suspiciously innocent, but the two know better. After unsuccessfully trying to sell them a flying paper bird, he departed and let them return to the bus.

"Man, I wish I had long pants on...and I wonder what really happened on that train?"

-Aaron Morse

EUROPE



We made it! Sarah-Beth Zoto and Sibylle Haupert celebrate that fact that they are standing-in one piece!-in England. The plane ride was uneventful, except when it came time to disembark. For the rest of the day, they traveled from one closed exhibit to the next.

Direct from Vienna...Moments before they appeared on stage, this motley crew assembled one more time. Among them are a roustabout, three dancers, a gypsy, a clown, a Bluebird girl, a Stilt-Man, a magician, a parade-leader, and a certain girl from Mira.

Watch where you put that thing! Katie Foley as Rosalie and Chris Finan as Marco perfect their sword-box routine. After being stabbed by her sweetheart, Rosalie decided to stay with Marco.

Defying gravity? Matt DiCarlo, along with Michelle Toft and Christalle DiTullio, was drafted to entertain the crows while the sets were being changed. Only one ball was lost.

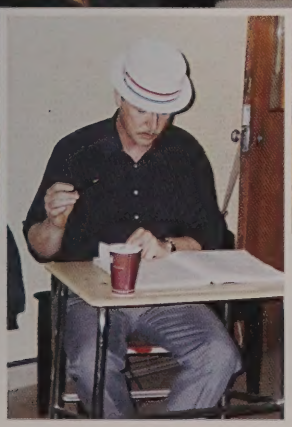
Seventy Beasts!! Jacquot (Chad Nixon) celebrates the circus's move to the "Big Tent" with roustabouts Kathryn Stemshorn, Adam Terella, Scott Long, and Tammy Miller. The whole cast joined them and danced around the stage before tumbling to the ground in...fatigue?

What to do? Lili (Amanda Bruce) looks longingly at Paul (played that night by Jeff Roy), debating whether to go with him. Eventually, she does and ends the play on a happy note.

"Carnival was a blast but I never thought I'd be talking to puppets in front of the whole school."

-Sibylle Haupert

CARNIVAL



Play it, Maestro! Mr. Foley runs through the musical scores one last time, perfecting the rhythm and chugging his coffee. As the leader of the Carnival band, he sported the same hat during the performances.

We Are It!

Seniors

Okay, Seniors - this is it. We are it. We've finally made it this far and that's all that matters. In the following pages you'll find a whole lot of memories and see a whole lot of futures. There's stuff to laugh about, to smile about, and probably to cry about. But hey, WE DID IT! We've all been through a lot of ups and downs and worked hard. Somehow, we managed to get through everything and connect with people we never dreamed of being friends with. We hope you like it. Thanks for everything, guys, and good luck to all, this is really it!

SUCCESS
" To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty. To find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child, a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition, to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded. " Ralph Waldo Emerson. Remember that the bad times are what make the good times even better, and keep your humor. It's been a blast guys! Class Will

I, Meagan Fetterhoff, leave Littleton High with many fond memories of the Fetterhoff children.

I, Matt DiCarlo, leave my tire tracks on Nashoba Trail.

I, Shannon Feehan, leave Tom and Patrick to fight over my room and softball and field hockey the best of luck.

I, Deanne Ducharme, leave my sister Elizabeth my little lemon, and all my friends a high gas bill and the best of luck.

I, Caitlin McGrath, leave Chris Finan enough nicknames to last him a lifetime, and LHS two more McGraths to cause the trouble I never really got into.

I, Michelle Toft, leave Anna Pierce and Shannon McCumber all of my Michellisms (big words) and Meghann Saylor all the balls in the woods to shag.

I, Marie Hronik, leave Carolyn the convertible to drive, Emily a forward position for her soccer career, and Anna Pierce the mile and luck with beating Narragansett.

I, Siobhan Donnelly, leave my everlasting love to Chris Kuncho.

I, Katie Slocombe, leave Jonana, McGrath, Weesa, Sexy Stamper, Shannos, Andwuw, and Mr. Reed a big, shiny Gold Star.

I, Regina Hufnagel, leave Kathy Quinn a plane ticket to California.

I, Sarah Badger, leave Stacey my good looks, and Kyle P. a bowl of pudding.

I, Rachael Wayland, leave J.J. 3 more years in this Place!

I, Aaron Morse, leave Mrs. Coburn and Mrs. Holt a bottle of red wine.

I, Stephanie L. Siekman, leave Brian Siekman three more years.

I, Stacy Greenaway, leave my little brother my attitude and guts.

I, Doug McLellan, leave Miss Corkum a fistful of change and a stack of papers to correct for tomorrow.

I, Chris Kuncho, leave the nickname "Chuck" to anyone weird enough to carry on the tradition.

I, Chad Nixon, leave Sarah McGrath the vision of her footprint on my forehead.

I, Lisa Neary, leave Julie N. 3 years of good luck, Ken Spencer the tree on Pleasant St., and all "the girls" a week of pure fun in Canada.

I, Heather Granville, leave my sister Jennifer all my love and support, and to all my friends, good luck.

I, Melissa Hebert, leave Mr. Harhen's JFK statue to whichever recycling company found it and all my love to all my friends I'm leaving behind.

I, Kim Finch, leave Gilly and Liz many more years at L.H.S. and Buff "you know who".

I, Shannon Grundy, leave my sister a brain so she can graduate.

I, Stacie Corbin, leave Ryan Johnston a year without any friends.

I, Melissa Benjamin, leave my nephew Casey, my best friend Tracy, and Scott Long all my love.

I, Christian Dixon, leave knowing I'll never have to take a Spanish class again.

I, Tim Bennett, leave Gregg Jenzyk, Jason Letourneau, and Shawn Clarke gas money for times when we go to shows after almost running out of gas in the middle of the projects with a bunch of big men with their shirts off staring at us.

I, Skippy McGrath, leave Littleton High with no more McGraths to grace its halls.

I, Erica Jones, leave my best friend Naomi all of our old letters, pictures, and summertime memories. Oh, and you can have all my clothes and shoes too.

I, Robert Downs, leave Shawn Clark with all the knowledge and cards of magic, and the golf team the attitude of the game.

I, Christopher Finan, leave with good memories and friends.

I, Cindy Eaton, leave my little green Neon to whichever sibling can find my key first, and the best of luck to the Class

I, Sarah Calhoun, leave a bootleg copy of Brroken Arrrow to Pomegranate and Cucumber, a smelly Volvo to Hale, and That Thing to Him.

I, Jill Stewart, leave Crystal another year of tennis with Mr. Marr-Amanda too, unless she slacks off and joins track! I also leave the best of luck to the class of '97.

I, Adam Terella, leave my brother Chris 3 more great years, and Mr. Marr with enough helmets to protect each and every precious head of his students.

I, Manuel Altwegg, can't leave something (sorry) I need my locker.

I, Sibylle Haupert, leave Mal four more exiting years of mucking out "the stalls."

I, Elizabeth Wenz, leave with the knowledge of how to change clothes in a car and also leave full reign of MY HOUSE to Christopher.

I, Jon Nader, leave knowing the truth.

I, Heather Legenza, leave Nancy Miller and Steph Schmitt my "official" list of do-ables to continue next year, and all my love and good luck to Eddie, Abby, Steph, and Mary.

I, Dave Pettit, leave for good, in hopes of never coming back.

I, Adam Terella, leave with the expectation that there will always be a boy crazy enough to keep the yearbook girls straight and knowing I just made suckers out of everyone who made this page.

I, Katie Foley, leave my Dad 60 for Sharon to borrow.

I, Sarah Yapp, leave Stat knowing that I wrecked him in gym class and Shawn Clarke the courage to go on without me.

I, Lea Pinto, leave Mary Bove the memory of me in her birthday every year, knowing that I'm older and out of high school.

I, Steve Kanniard, leave the memory of Brian Crory to be forever remembered by all who knew him and loved him. I also leave Stacie and Mike the best of luck for many years to come.

I, Shawnna Wetherbee, leave knowing that you can only achieve one kind of success??

I, Melissa Tucker, leave David and Michael many more years of school, and I leave the pitchers mound for anyone with determination and dedication. I wish softball the best of luck.

I, Erin Estep, leave Turnip the memory of Drew Bledsoe at the Army/Navy game, and an extra place to stay in my dorm at college.

I, Katie Feeney, leave Brent Marshall one more year to be the "Macaroni."

I, Heather Magner, leave Peter my alarm clock set at 6:00 AM for the next four years at Littleton.

I, Joanna Winslow, leave knowing that Quinny and I gave Mr. Knox enough heart attacks to last him a lifetime.

I, Chris Reed, leave everyone to themselves in mind.

I, Lisa Brooks, leave 2 more fun filled years of Resource Room to Dan Walsh, Meghann Saylor, and Christalle DiTullio.

I, Kathy Sherman, leave those nice people in Ayer a new Scarecrow.

I, Kathy Quinn, leave Christine Kalukiewicz my Nike headband, Regina my purple bumper sticker, and the soccer and softball teams all the luck in the world.

I, Ryan Monat, leave Nathan, Brandon, and Caitlyn four years of growing up with the Stat legacy.

I, Megen Portanova, leave Mrs. Granata all the chicken fingers I never got to eat, and Jayme-Lee Mauro an extra jacket to take with her on the rope tow.

I, Pam Kiernan, leave Nick 6 more years of school reform.

I, Michelle McGloughlin, leave my car to David and Katie for a ride to school when the car feels like working.

I, Ciara White, leave Ms. Beasley with a smile, and Baxter to watch over Brett while I'm away.

I, Sarah McGrath, leave knowing by heart all the places that Ryan Johnston has painted and I leave the legend of BU to Tina Rizzitano.

I, Kate Murdock, leave Señora Moran even though she's still talking.

I, Sarah-Beth Zoto, leave my sister Nicole a promise to never make her late for school again, and apologies to Mrs. Granata for liking chicken fingers.

One of the Tweedles, Sarah Calhoun, poses for a brief moment before running off to find her other half, Jill Stewart.

The Queen of Hearts, A.K.A. Regina Hufnagel, shows off her lovely facial expressions.

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all people. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to all even to the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive people, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself to others, you will become vain and bitter; there will always be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let not this blind you to the virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself and do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy.

It's Only Just Begun

Underclass

The underclass years can be the best or worst of our lives. Many things stay the same through the years such as dances, clubs, sports and fund raisers. The seventh and eighth graders still sell magazines to raise money for their classes. The juniors will always suffer through their first critical, but things change, too. Many new ideas have been incorporated into the school program to better our educational experience. The seventh graders now enjoy the comfort of their own building as they ease into high school life. Faculty members spontaneously award Tiger Pride commendations to students who demonstrate extraordinary social behavior when interacting with their peers. After all these years of seemingly easy life, the underclassmen are ready to tackle the big bad world as they move on to explore their own interests and talents as seniors and beyond.

Bookin' It

A c a d e m i c s

Yay, yay, the academics section is finally here. Yes, here it is, the section you have all been waiting so patiently for. All of us here at LJSHS know that we students live for academics, and academics alone. Be it having a Medieval feast in humanities, a fiesta in Spanish class, an "organs made out of food" party in Biology, or reenacting the banquet before the murder of Banquo in Shakespeare's Macbeth, those academics really keep us going. The excitement of finishing a project in art or technical education, or completing a perfect set of squat thrusts in physical education is often more than we can handle, so we go relax in the world of proofs, parabolas, and problems with any of the educators of our Mathematics Department. Well, here you have it folks, your ever-so-exciting academics section, which will hopefully inspire future generations to keep bookin' it . . .

Seventh graders Adrienne Haduch and Emma Bruns:

"We read multicultural books and do book reports on them in English class. We also make posters, explain our book to the rest of the class, and plan to do plays. It's actually pretty fun."

In Memory of William Pedersen

During the summer of 1996, Littleton High lost a beloved and valued staff member, custodian Bill Pedersen. The yearbook staff could find no better way to express this loss than the moving eulogy presented by Superintendent Vincent Franco.

I would like to thank Bill's family for extending the invitation to deliver this eulogy. Bill was born in 1943 and grew up in Carlisle and Westford. He attended Westford Academy. He was proud of his service during the 1960's in the United States Navy, and very proud of his active duty on mine sweepers in the Mediterranean and in the Bahamas. After his naval duty was completed he applied for employment with the Littleton Schools.

Bill was hired on May 1, 1969 and served with distinction for twenty-seven years as a custodian at Littleton High School. The school was his life. He was totally dedicated to the school, the students, and the staff. He treated everyone with the same accommodating and friendly manner. A request for a favor from a student was given as much attention as an order from the principal.

During my frequent visits to the high school there were two people I always spoke to- the principal and Bill. It was during those many pleasant conversations that I learned of Bill's interest in reading history. He was especially interested in the history of the World Wars and in particular the naval history of World War II. It was an interest that we shared, but I must admit that he knew far more than I. He also read extensively about the development of the American west and loved movies about the west. He had a wonderful sense of humor. He would ask me monthly when his office would be ready because he was anxious to begin interviewing people to be his secretary. When Principal Jack Walker retired he volunteered to succeed him.

Bill Pedersen was beyond any doubt the most reliable school department employee. He would take on any assignment, at any time of day or night, Saturdays, Sundays it didn't matter- if there was something that had to be done at the school he was there whether it was for the principal, a teacher, a student, the PTSA, a town organization or group- he was there- accommodating, making people feel comfortable and welcome. He understood more than anyone that the school belonged to the community. However Bill was not perfect, in his enthusiasm to get things done he broke more machines than everyone else combined. He got away with it because of who he was, we just kept paying the repair bills and giving machines back to Bill to break again.

In 1990 the school was evaluated by a visiting team from the New England Association of Schools and Colleges. This team didn't know any of us when they came here. When they left they gave us a sixty page report on the school. In that report there is one person and only one person commended by name- not the principal, not an outstanding teacher-no the person commended was William Pedersen.

Everyone who works in a school is a school teacher. By his example and behavior, Bill taught us kindness, loyalty, dedication, and hard work.

Bill Pedersen made his life a success by making a difference for people who are a part of our school. His life was a meaningful contribution to that community, he was an important person, a respected person, and as much appreciated employee. All of us who are a part of that community extend our sincere thanks to his mother, Bessie; his brother Ken; and his sisters Carol, Janice and Polly for sharing Bill with us. We shall miss him and will fondly remember him for the wonderful and exceptional person that he was.

Clubs and Activities

Where do you go after school? The gym to play floor hockey? The library to tutor? The tech lab to type copy? The Nature Trail to test the water? Fitz's storeroom to organize chemicals? or Fitz's kitchen to bake a cake? or Fitz's backyard for a campout? or Fitz's room for practice for the upcoming competition? Then, there are those that are musically inclined who spend hours practicing their pieces for the upcoming concert. And we can just hope that any eighth graders on the newly formed Rock Climbing Club don't try to scale the Washington Monument! And if you don't partake in any of these after school activities-see what you are missing!

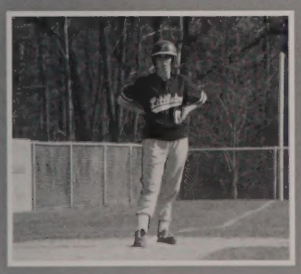
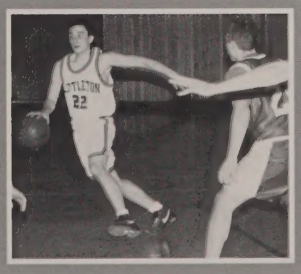
And finally, our sports section. Throughout the year, we all go through our hectic schedule, running around to our different activities, but through it all, we still participate in sports in record numbers. The LHS '97 sports year began in the spring of '96 when both the softball and baseball teams, taking it one step further, made it to the states finals. And even though the track team did not do as well as hoped, they began the rebuilding for a better season next year. This determination also carried on into the fall, with the girls and boys soccer teams and field hockey team going on to districts. Hard work and much effort was displayed by the football team, as they came together after most of the players had graduated the year before. And finally, we ended with our basketball and wrestling seasons. The boys' basketball team, after losing all their starters, was able to bounce back and win some tough games. Girls' basketball returned with four starters, and throughout the season, it looked as though States were in the game plan. Unfortunately, they missed it by two games. The wrestling team also made their mark with outstanding individual efforts, and were able to send three competitors on to State and Districts. As the seasons came to a close, everyone held fond memories of their great times either on the field or in the gym, and no one will ever forget the incredible effort displayed in all our teams. Littleton may be small, but we play sports in a BIG way!





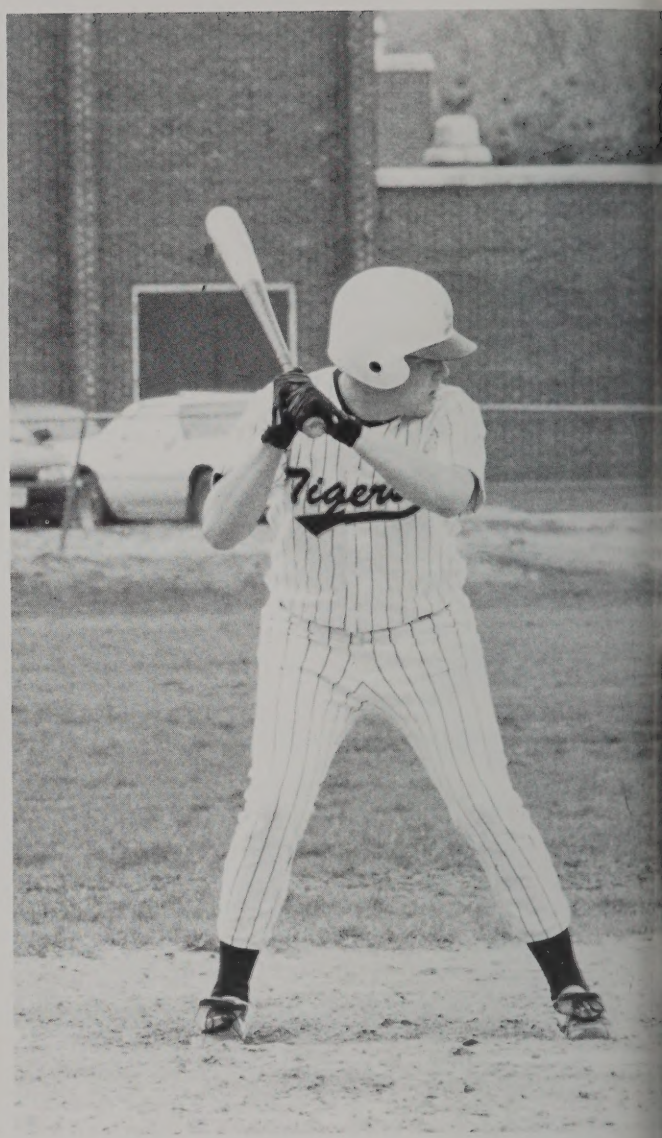
Attitude, Commitment, Desire, Hard Work, Breeds Success. All these factors were ingrained in our heads as we reached the State Final game versus Harwich. Although the outcome wasn't as we had wanted, we still went home with a sense of completion.

The season was one we'll never forget: from the first day of practice until the end of the road, we knew we had something to accomplish. We trained hard during the spring, preparing for the long season ahead. We had already raised enough funds to go to South Carolina during April vacation.

When April came along, we were ready to go. In our first game down south we lost, which was unexpected. We now knew we were going to have to work for our goal. Eating at Wendy's and Shonee's every day was getting to be a bore, but the unity we gained was desirable.

As the season progressed, we continued to improve, and by the time states came around, we had a record of 20-5. Our first game against Groton was a victory, and the train kept rolling. We had wins versus Gansett, Grafton, and finally an incredible 1-0 win versus Mahar in the state regional game. Losing the state final was difficult, but we knew that we had a run at it and we had fun doing it, which is all that truly matters.

"Tools to Success".



Ryan Johnston concentrates while anticipating the next pitch.

The 1996 Softball season was a lot of fun and a great achievement, however not quite as successful as expected. In the past couple years softball has been a huge success with back to back Division III league championships. Coach Knox has been great the whole way with much appreciated help from Mr. Feehan (and his lucky green shorts) and Mrs. Feehan, our official score keeper. We ended the regular season 16-3, drubbing the opponents in most of our wins and easily qualifying for states. Unfortunately, we let down and had a disappointing and unexpected loss in the first round. Our five seniors - Lynn Dungey, Tammy Miller, Kerri Leo, Neishia Grady, and Diana Belanger - will be sadly missed, but we plan on having another championship season and lots more fun.

A swing and a miss, Shannon Feehan takes a strike. Although the Tigers weren't perfect all the time, they made a well-earned run at their division championship.

Try, Try, Try Again! Kathy Quinn's attempt to make the out is not in vain, as the Tiger's went on to capture a winning season.

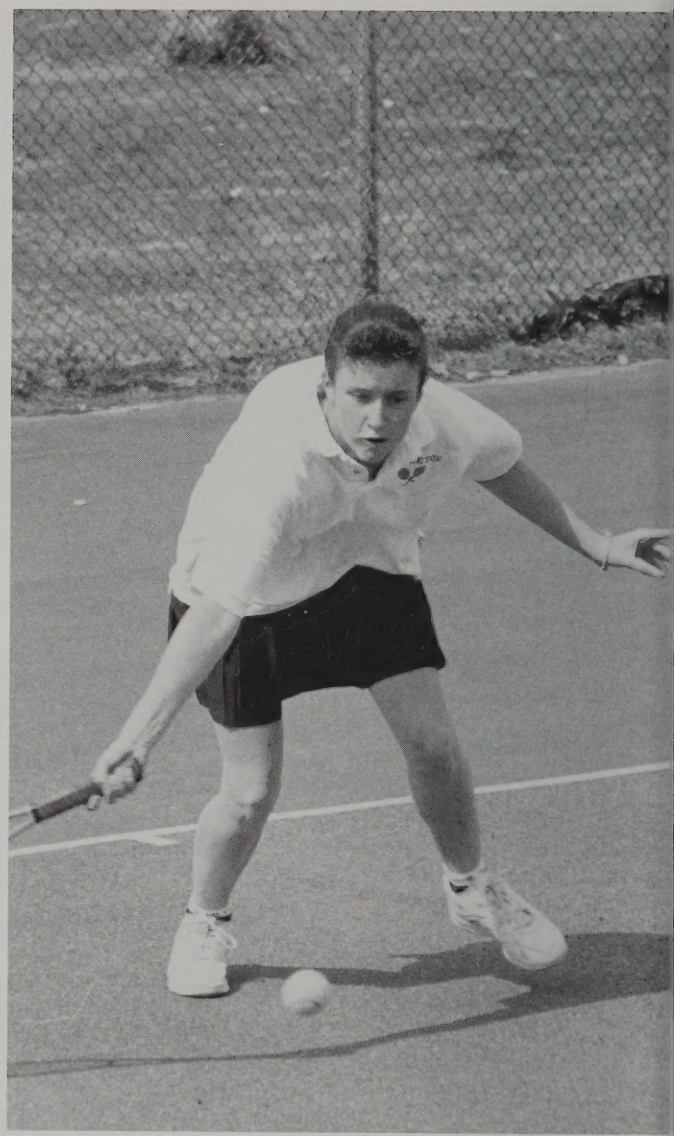
TENNIS-SPRING '96- It was a hard season for Littleton Tennis. After our team leaders graduated, we were left to rebuild. The team of seven girls and a guy was mixed in grade levels. Our only senior was Kathryn Stemshorn, (our German foreign exchange student) a doubles player. Tina Rizzitano, our third singles player, and Emily VanBaalen represented the sophomore class. Shannon McCumber, first singles, Amy Worden, second singles, and Alaina Ford, doubles, made up our freshman group Finally, Jennifer Worden, and Mary Dennehy, both doubles players, were our seventh graders. Our junior varsity members included juniors Sarah Calhoun and Jill Stewart with sophomores Amanda Bruce, Crystal Unger and Jennifer Roy. These girls along with assistant and sometime-player Adam Kenger (also a sophomore) brought Littleton Tennis to a 6 win, 9 loss season.

Tennis isn't all hard work, as Adam Kenger shows us that there are moments to bask in the sun.



Amy Worden attempts to make a clear volley as she tries to win her match, 40-love. A solid player for the team, this young sophomore shows promise for the future.

Starting another year with a new coaching staff once again proved to be no problem. This year, the women's team had a larger turnout than last year, and, consequently, saw many more victories. The women's 4 X 440 team, composed of Sarah McGrath, Gretchen Turner, Melissa Haines, Michelle Toft, with Lindsay Parks running some of the time, won the league title and made it to the district meet. Marie Hronik, Katie Foley, Sarah McGrath, Gretchen Turner, Melissa Haines, Lindsay Parks, and Michelle Toft each qualified for either class, district, or state meets. Overall, with a 7-4 record, the women's team once again ranked among the top in the league. Unfortunately, this year's men's team lacked in numbers. Although they never won a varsity meet, this crew produced some phenomenal athletes such as Chris Ellis and Jeff Roy. In all, this year's track experience was filled with fun and memories.

Sophomore David Tucker sprints for the finish-line during a meet against Ayer. Unfortunately, this year's men team faced a lack in numbers and finished the year winless in varsity league competition.

Carolyn Hronik practices her technique throwing the shot put. Carolyn served as a vital member of this year's track team that finished the year 7-4.

Senior Michelle Toft soars over the hurdles with perfect form, practicing for her 300 yard sprint. Michelle also is an excellent javelin thrower, competed at States, and was a vital leg in the undefeated girls 4 by 400 relay team.

Junior Gretchen Turner flying high during track practice, easily clears the bar. Gretchen was a vital member of this team, successfully competing in the 400 m., 4 by 440m, and the high jump. This year's girls varsity team finished the season 7-4.

ophomore David "Spud" Clement concentrates carefully as he prepares to hurl the discus. Unfortunately, this year's boys team went inless due to a small turnout.

For the Varsity Girls Soccer Team, the 1996 season was one filled with firsts. The biggest breakthrough, however, was winning the Mid-Wach banner. Finishing off the regular season undefeated, the team was had only one loss afterward, to long time rival, Sutton. However, there is much to be said about these talented girls. Having played together since kindergarten, everyone knew the others' style of play, and they were bound and determined to make their mark. A team like this only comes around once in a great while, and the Tiger's girls soccer team have left their pawprints on the field. Composed primarily of seniors, much of the team will graduate and move on to aspiring careers, leaving their high school memories behind. But they will never forget the fun they had. And Littleton will never forget the 1996 Girls Soccer Team.

Sophomore Meghann Saylor corners the ball across midfield in a victorious game against Clinton. This year's girls soccer team went undefeated in their regular season play.

Center forward Kathy Quinn skillfully challenges a Clinton defender at midfield. The team went on to win the mid-Wachusett league with a record of 19-1-2.

Despite the challenge of filling many key positions, Mr. Turner and the boys' varsity team pulled off a surprisingly successful 13-3-3 season. With a 5-0 win against Whitinsville Christian in the Central Mass. Division III quarterfinals, the Tigers next had to face an experienced Bromfield squad. Littleton played aggressively and well but lost this semifinal battle 2-0 to the eventual Division III state champions. Littleton's seniors played important roles on this year's team. Co-captain Jon Nader quickly adapted to his new role at forward and contributed with many goals. Co-captain Chad Nixon successfully filled the physically demanding center midfield position and tallied numerous assists with his consistent, unselfish play. From his wing midfield position, Tim Bennett scored several key goals for the Tigers. Hard-working rookie Chris Penney was a nice addition to the offensive line. Unfortunately, talented Steve Kanniard was lost early in the season due to a serious wrist injury. With many experienced players returning, including two goalkeepers, next season promises to be a successful one as well.

Stealing a break during half-time, Todd Graham, Chad Nixon, and Jon Nader contemplate their winning strategy. A coach's half-time speech can do a lot to motivate the players for the second half.

Junior Shaun Clarke skillfully maneuvers the ball around the opposite team in order to get a breakaway. The boys soccer team finished with a winning season and a trip to the district tournament.

Every season holds its own memories. The field hockey season of 1996 was filled with intensity, fun, and new friends. With the return of ten seniors, we were a very close unit. Coach Corkum's new additions made things even better. We worked our butts off. Saturday morning practices will always be treasured. Doesn't everyone enjoy running five laps at 6:30 in the morning when the stars are still out? Despite all the running, (rain practices anyone?), and our wonderful agility exercises, we came out with a winning season of 11-3-4, after the tournament. The Mid-Wachusett League Division D banner is finally ours!!!! Coach Corkum's indestructable optimism was always key to our success, not to mention the suicides and going to the "Corner." But she believed from the very day that we could do it... and she was right.

To the team, don't ever forget the bus initiation: "funny faces with !!", the constant "teasing" that occured...hmmm, pouncing, and ganging up on the "peons." The hot air balloon, pasta party talks, and Sharon's brush with death after the cake incident. In the end, it was worth it, putting our heart and souls into everything we did. Congratulations to all and to all good luck.

Sophomore April Dusek waits for the play to come to her. As a link, her job was to support the offense and defense, a position which requires a lot of running and defensive skills.

Mid-Wachusett League All-Star, Shannon Feehan brings the ball up the field. Her extraordinary effort as a wing helped the team to a victorious season which ended in a banner for the team.

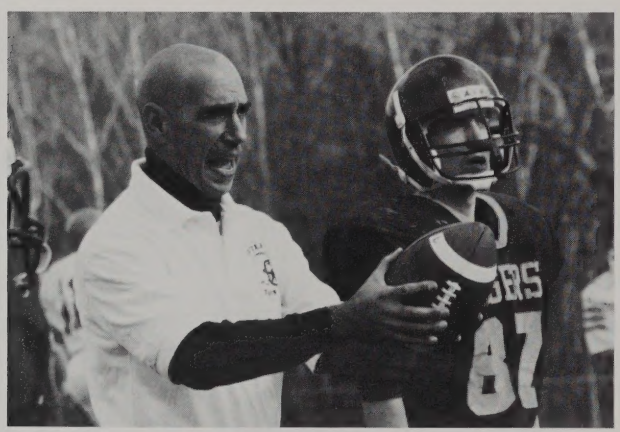
The long hard journey finally came to an end with a disappointing loss to Ayer on Thanksgiving. The Littleton Tigers had a long season, definitely harder than the year before. The Tigers went from 9-1 in 1995 to a grim 1-9 this year. However, the season didn't go as badly as the record implies. The season started optimistically as double sessions brought the team together. The Tigers lost their first game, because they were inexperienced as a team. The season progressed and the Tigers got a win against Murdock. The Tiger team just didn't seem to be able to put together a full game. They would play well for a half, but then fall apart. The best characteristic of the team was its' will to never give up. This classified the team in everything it did, even if they didn't turn out they way they would have wanted.



Offensive coordinator Joe Leone leads a drill before the game. His tough coaching style encouraged the team to play better while in a game and during practice.

Senior Captain Dave Pettit makes a break from his opponents while looking for a hole. His quarterbacking skills of both running and passing made him Offensive MVP for the team.

Although a 7-12 season left the Lady Tigers short of a tournament spot, no one will ever forget the great memories which were made. With a team of 8 seniors, 1 junior, and 3 sophomores, there was always something to laugh about, even while doing Ms. Corkum's infamous wind-sprints. Our crazy plays will always be remembered as well as our enthusiasm for continuous fast break. Lastly, those embarrassing, yet interesting pre-game and half time talks really kept our team red-faced and on our toes.

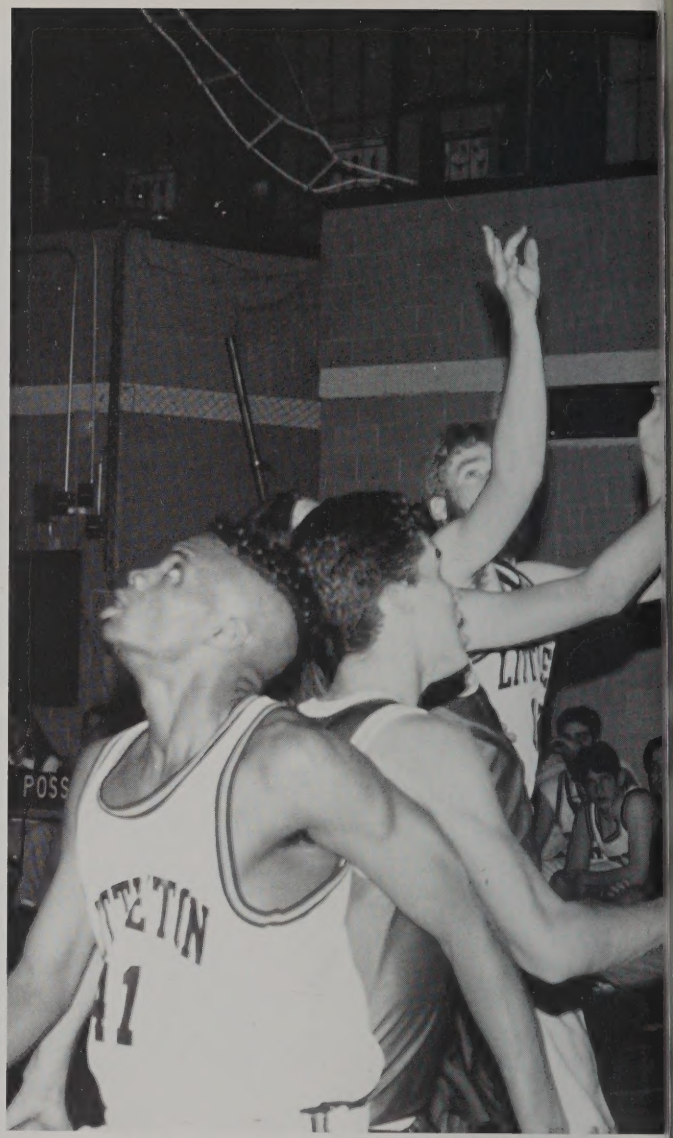
This season's Boys' Varsity Basketball team had a rough season. Although they lost all but one member of last year's team, they managed to play with a heat and intensity that can only be associated with the spirit of a Littleton Tiger. The fact that the entire team, minus senior Jon Nader, were first-year varsity players had a major effect on their play. The guys had to be ten times tougher and work a hundred times harder. That was Coach John Smith's attitude going into this year's season. With the help of coaches Wright, Eaton, and Finn, the team opened up with a 2-1 record, both wins against Notre Dame. That's where the streak ended. Although the team worked hard in practice, they had a tough time with their league due to size and experience. The heart was always there, though, and the Tigers plugged away. They ended the season with a 3 win - 14 loss record.

Heartbreaks not only included close losses, but the space that grows between the players when they don't cooperate and work together as a team. The glue that held this team together was faith in the old addage, "It isn't whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

All in all, the Littleton Tigers can be remembered for their players and the plays that make the game great. It was all about having fun, no matter what happened. And that is the way it should be.



Senior Jon Nader sets his sight on the basket while protecting the ball from Bromfield opponents.

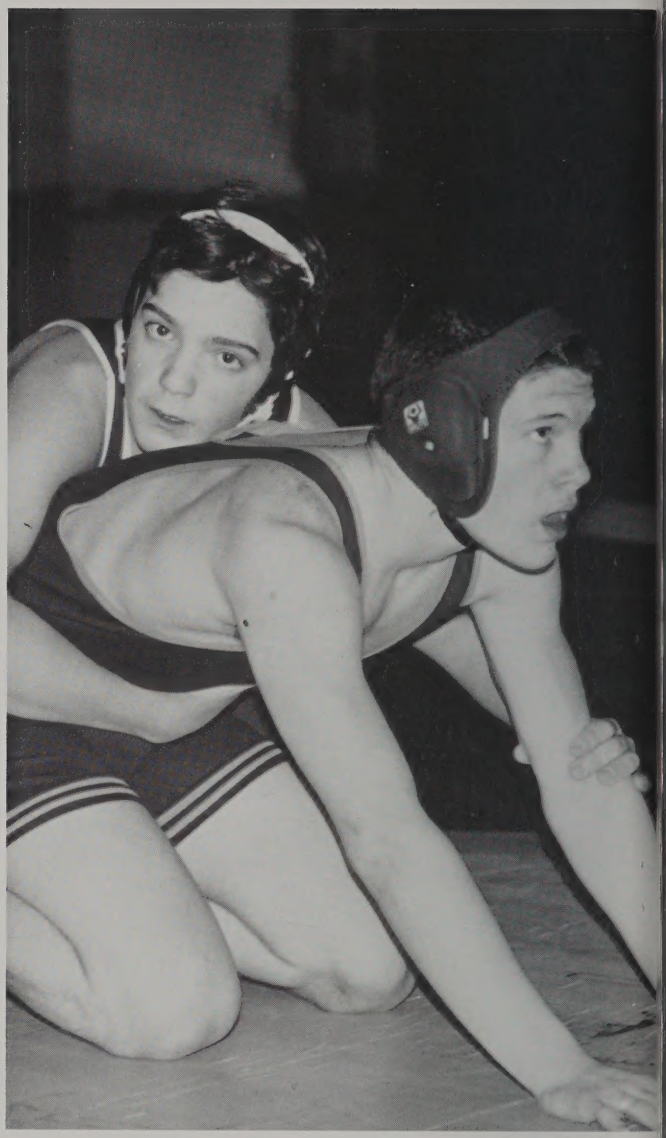
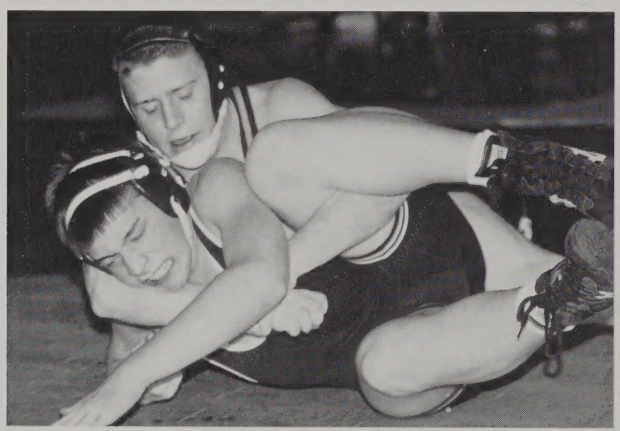
The one and only true manly sport in the winter is wrestling! No other sport requires the participant to puke or spit in a cup just to be eligible. This, of course, is after the participant works to exhaustion, and starves his/herself. Next, one must go through excessive beatings and putdowns by their fellow teammates and coaches. This is to prepare the wrestler for the hardest, longest six minutes of his life.

Now that we all understand the manly art, our season opened against rival Marlboro, whom we fell short to because of forfeits. Hard crossfaces, pancakes, nutcrackers, and Saturday night rides prepared us for our tournaments. Many participants placed 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in these tournaments showing pride and school spirit. This truly shows the separation of men (real men) and the wusses. From here we defeated Somerville twice, and won many individual matches, only losing by forfeits.

So, in conclusion, don't mess with us wrestlers, because we, in all our glory, are tough guys. We all reached our individual goals, whether it be to win a couple matches or to win an entire tournament.





Dan Pettit performs a leg lock on his opponent. Both Pettits wrestled this year making a unique blend for the team.

Evan Like is on the bottom in this move, a familiar position for him. All joking aside, Like did an incredible job for the Tiger team.

This is for you, Ciara,

If I can stop one heart from breaking
I shall not live in vain.
If I can ease one life from aching

Or help one panting robin unto his nest again.
I shall not live in vain.

From Your Parents With Love

FOREVER YOUNG

MAY THE GOOD LORD BE WITH YOU DOWN EVERY ROAD YOU ROAM.
AND MAY SUNSHINE AND HAPPINESS SURROUND YOU WHEN YOU'RE FAR FROM HOME.
AND MAY YOU GROW TO BE PROUD, DIGNIFIED AND TRUE.
AND DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU'D HAVE DONE TO YOU.
BE COURAGEOUS AND BE BRAVE.
AND IN MY HEART YOU'LL ALWAYS STAY FOREVER YOUNG.

MAY GOOD FORTUNE BE WITH YOU, MAY YOUR GUIDING LIGHT BE STRONG.
BUILD A STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN WITH A PRINCE OR A VAGABOND.
AND MAY YOU NEVER LOVE IN VAIN.
AND IN MY HEART YOU WILL REMAIN FOREVER YOUNG.

AND WHEN YOU FIN'LLY FLY AWAY, I'LL BE HOPING THAT I SERVED YOU WELL.
FOR ALL THE WISDOM OF A LIFETIME, NO ONE CAN EVER TELL.
BUT WHATEVER ROAD YOU CHOOSE, I'M RIGHT BEHIND YOU WIN OR LOSE, FOREVER YOUNG.
